The Sunrise Quartet

Saturday, Oct. 5th 2013 at 8PM

The Sunrise Quartet, Claudia Chudacoff, violin, Teri Lazar, violin, Osman Kivrak, viola, Diana Fish, cello, founded in 1991 and based in Washington DC, has given concerts at the Kennedy Center, the National Building Museum, the Corcoran Museum, the Phillips Collection, the Mozart Festival at the World Bank & the Chautauqua Festival at Dickinson College. They have completed a Chamber Music America residency at the Duke Ellington School of the Arts where they performed concerts and coached music students. They also perform as the National Gallery String Quartet at the National Gallery of Art. In 2011 they performed an all Beethoven concert there as part of the Gallery's presentation of Beethoven's string quartets. In addition to the standard quartet repertoire, the group presents rarely heard masterpieces of chamber music. Program includes La Oracion del Torero by Turina, "Dissonant" Quartet in C major, K 465 by Mozart and Piano Quintet op. 57 by Shostakovich with pianist Li-Ly Chang

"A beautifully organized performance", "The performances by the Sunrise Quartet were uniformly excellent" -The Washington Post

Two by Two

Saturday, March 15th 2014 at 8PM

A rare opportunity to hear two highly regarded pianists, Michael Adcock and José Ramos-Santana, perform together in masterworks of the four-hands piano repertoire & music for solo piano. They are classically trained virtuosi who bring their charismatic performing style to selections of the great piano literature of Schubert, Ravel, Dvorak and Barber. Hailed for his prodigious technique and praised by the Washington Post for an 'unusually fresh and arresting approach to the piano', pianist Michael Adcock has cultivated a versatile career as soloist, chamber musician and pre-concert lecturer. He is the winner of the 1996 Washington Intl. Comp., the Kosciusko Foundation, Chopin Comp. in Chicago & New York. A native of Puerto Rico, Jose Ramos-Santana is one of the most acclaimed pianists of his generation. A top prize winner of the Gina Bachauer Intl. Piano Comp., he has performed with New York Philharmonic, Royal Philharmonic, Puerto Rico, Detroit, Saint Louis & Baltimore Symphonies.

Triple Delights

Sunday, May 26th 2014 at 3PM

Astonishing in her musical versatility, violinist Qing Li brings great warmth, poise, and insight to her music making. Solo performances have garnered such critical praise as, "the highest level musically", "unsurpassed technical brilliance", "as the soloist, Qing was flawless, her style was impeccable". At the same time, she is a sought after chamber musician, having collaborated with such luminaries as Pinchas & Eugenia Zukerman, Hilary Hahn, Leon Fleischer, and Lang Lang. She is also admired as one of the country's most accomplished orchestral players as the appointed Principal Second by Yuri Temirkanov. Finally, Qing Li is reengaged time after time as a dynamic recitalist, a chamber musician and a guest concertmaster. Ms. Li performs on a Nicolo Gagliano violin, which was crafted in 1736, Naples. Cellist Ken Ding currently performs with the National Philharmonic Orchestra & the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. He is currently the Maryland Classical Youth Orchestra's (MCYO) cello section coach. Pianist Li-Ly Chang - "She is an expert partner in the Poulenc Violin Sonata, the ensemble showed expert technique, emotional expressiveness and a firm sense of partnership"--Washington Post. Program includes Duo for violin & cello, op7, Piano Trios by Debussy & Piazzolla & etc.
